Welcome to the District! Matters of concern to attorneys and paralegals can be found here. If you are representing yourself in Federal Court, please visit our pro se litigants page.

Attorneys who are members in good standing of the Oregon State Bar may apply for admission to practice in the Federal Courts for the District of Oregon. Attorneys licensed in other states may appear in this Court pro hac vice by motion in the specific case. The Local Rules of the District are the primary resource for practitioners in the District related to form and methods of pleading. Attorneys, paralegals and other filers are reminded that the Court Fee Schedule is amended from time to time. The current version is dated May 9, 2009.
