APPLICATION FOR ATTORNEY ADMISSION

Applicable Local Rules: LR 83-1 to 83-5 sets forth the rules and requirements for admission to practice before the bar of the United States District Court for the District of Oregon.

Requirements for General Admission: LR 83-1 and LR 83-2 require that each applicant must: (1) be an active member in good standing of the Oregon State Bar and (2) submit a completed application for admission on the attached pdf fillable forms. The requisite forms are the Application for Attorney Admission and CM/ECF Registration and two sponsor Certificates. These forms are to be e-filed in CM/ECF. Applicants will be prompted to pay the admission fee via Pay.gov during e-filing. More information about obtaining a CM/ECF login and password for purposes of filing these forms is available at the District of Oregon website on the Attorney Admissions menu under the For Attorneys tab.

Reinstatement Following State Bar Disciplinary Action: Attorneys who have applied for reinstatement to the Oregon State Bar (pursuant to Title 8 of the Oregon State Bar's Rules of Procedure) must also separately apply for reinstatement to the bar of this court after being reinstated by the Oregon Supreme Court. Applications for reinstatement before this court must be e-filed in CM/ECF using this application for general admission and the same forms required by the Oregon State Bar. The applicant must also pay the general admission application fee via Pay.gov during e-filing.

Scheduling Admission Ceremonies: Applicants are required to personally attend an attorney admissions ceremony in order to be admitted to practice before this Court. Monthly admission ceremonies are scheduled in Portland, Eugene, and Medford and may be scheduled in Pendleton. After the application has been received and processed, a deputy clerk will notify the attorney of the date and time for the scheduled admission ceremony via a Notice of Electronic Filing (NEF) "Notice of Admissions Ceremony."

Admission to the Federal Bar Association is open to all attorneys admitted to practice before this court. The Oregon Chapter has monthly lunch meetings from September through May of each year, usually on the third Thursday of the month. Luncheon speakers include federal district, magistrate, and bankruptcy judges and other speakers of interest to members.

The Oregon Chapter also regularly holds CLE Federal Practice and Procedure seminars for both young lawyers and experienced practitioners. Judges of the federal courts participate as speakers in these CLE activities. For further information about the FBA or for a membership application form, please visit the FBA's website.

Pro Bono Representation Panel: In 1989, the United States District Court for the District of Oregon established a Pro Bono Representation Panel of volunteer attorneys. The purpose of this panel is to represent pro se litigants in the prosecution of their civil actions before the Court. Panel usage is supervised by the District's Pro Bono Panel Administrator.

Upon the filing of an order appointing pro bono counsel, the court will ask an attorney on the panel to investigate the plaintiff's case and accept representation if there is a meritorious claim. Funds are available for reimbursement of expenses incurred prior to a decision to accept or decline representation. Should an attorney accept representation and prevail, attorneys fees may be claimed as provided by law.

The court actively seeks qualified attorneys to join the panel, and we ask you to consider volunteering your services to this important effort. Please complete the application form included in this packet and e-file it along with your application for admission.

EEOC Attorney Referral Program: The Equal Employment Opportunity Commission (EEOC) is seeking new attorneys to join their EEOC Lawyer Referral panel. Applications may be obtained from the Seattle District Office of the EEOC at (206) 220-6883.

U.S. District Court Website: The U.S. District Court website, ord.uscourts.gov, contains online access to current local rules, court notices, fee schedules, forms, and contact information. For additional Case Management/Electronic Case Filing information (CM/ECF), see: the Court's e-filing information page.

Attorney Admission Fund: By general order of the Court, attorneys applying for admission pursuant to LR 83 pay a specified amount in excess of the basic fee set by the Judicial Conference. This excess amount will be deposited to the District's Attorney Admission Fund. Monies held in the Attorney Admission Fund are to be used for the benefit of the bench and bar. Examples include sponsoring courtroom technology training and certification for trial lawyers and other continuing legal education programs.

NOTICE OF LOCAL RULE (LR) 83-6

Attorney admissions, discipline, and standards of professional conduct are addressed in LR 83. Please ensure that you are familiar with your obligations under this rule.

In particular, please note LR 83-6, which requires every attorney admitted to practice before the Court to notify the Clerk, Chief Judge, and the assigned judge in writing within fourteen days of: suspension, disbarment, or a change in admissions status in another jurisdiction that would affect eligibility to practice before this Court; a felony conviction in a state or federal court; or resignation from the bar of any court while an investigation was pending into allegations of misconduct which would warrant suspension or disbarment.

As the Practice Tip to this rule states, it is in the attorney's interest to report a disciplinary event listed in LR 83-6 as soon as possible. If a period of reciprocal suspension is imposed under LR 83-6(b), early notification increases the likelihood that the period of reciprocal suspension may coincide with the suspension period imposed by the disciplining court or bar. For most attorneys, parallel suspension periods are less disruptive to professional obligations than serial or overlapping suspension periods.
