
PETITION FOR A WRIT OF HABEAS CORPUS UNDER 28 U.S.C. § 2254

(Petition for Relief from a Conviction or Sentence by a Person in State Custody)

Instructions

1. To use this form, you must be a person who is currently serving a sentence under a judgment against you in a state court. You are asking for relief from the conviction or the sentence. This form is your petition for relief.
2. You may also use this form to challenge a state judgment that imposed a sentence to be served in the future, but you must fill in the name of the state where the judgment was entered. If you want to challenge a federal judgment that imposed a sentence to be imposed in the future, you should file a motion under 28 U.S.C. § 2255 in the federal court that entered the judgment.
3. Make sure the form is typed or neatly written.
4. You must tell the truth and sign the form. If you make a false statement of a material fact, you may be prosecuted for perjury.
5. Answer all the questions. You do not need to cite law. You may submit additional pages if necessary. If you do not fill out the form properly, you will be asked to submit additional or correct information. If you want to submit a brief or arguments, you must submit them in a separate memorandum. Note that any written submissions must comply with the Local Rules of the District of Oregon.
6. You must pay a fee of $5. If the fee is paid, your petition will be filed. If you cannot pay the fee, you may ask for an Application to Proceed In Forma Pauperis. Also, you must submit a certificate signed by an officer at the institution where you are confined showing the amount of money that the institution is holding for you.
7. In this petition, you may challenge the judgment entered by only one court. If you want to challenge a judgment entered by a different court (either in the same state or in different states), you must file a separate petition.
8. When you have completed the form, send the original and one (1) additional copy to:

Clerk of Court
U.S. District Court, District of Oregon
1000 SW Third Avenue, Suite 740
Portland, OR 97204-2902

If you want a file-stamped copy of the petition, you must enclose an additional copy of the petition and ask the Court to file-stamp it and return it to you. If you are incarcerated at Snake River Correctional Institution (SRCI) or Two Rivers Correctional Institution (TRCI), you must comply with the requirements of the E-Filing Program posted at the institution and set forth in Standing Order 2019-7 (for SRCI) or 2019-12 (for TRCI).

9. Notification Regarding Address Changes. It is important that you indicate your current address and state offender identification number ("SID") on your petition. If your address changes during the course of this proceeding, you must give written notification to the Court and opposing counsel of your new address. The notification should include the case number and be labeled "Notice of Change of Address." Failure to keep the Court advised of your current address may result in dismissal of your action.
10. CAUTION: You must include in this petition all the grounds for relief from the conviction or sentence that you challenge. You must state the facts that support each ground. If you fail to set forth all the grounds in this petition, you may be barred from presenting additional grounds at a later date.
11. CAPITAL CASES: If you are under a sentence of death, you are entitled to the assistance of counsel and should request the appointment of counsel.

GROUND FOR RELIEF

17. For this petition, state concisely every ground on which you claim that you are being held in violation of the Constitution, laws, or treaties of the United States. Attach additional pages if you have more than four grounds. State the facts supporting each ground.

CAUTION: In order to proceed in the federal court, normally you must exhaust (use up) your available state court remedies on each ground on which you request action by the federal court. Also, if you fail to set forth all the grounds in this petition, you may be barred from presenting additional grounds at a later date.

For your information, the following is a list (a-j) of the most frequently raised grounds for relief in habeas corpus proceedings. Each statement preceded by a letter constitutes a separate ground for possible relief. You may raise grounds other than those listed.

- a. Conviction obtained by plea of guilty that was unlawfully induced or not made voluntarily with understanding of the nature of the charge and the consequences of the plea.
- b. Conviction obtained by use of coerced confession.
- c. Conviction obtained by use of evidence gained pursuant to an unconstitutional search and seizure.
- d. Conviction obtained by use of evidence obtained pursuant to an unlawful arrest.
- e. Conviction obtained by a violation of the privilege against self-incrimination.
- f. Conviction obtained by the unconstitutional failure of the prosecution to disclose to the defendant evidence favorable to the defendant.
- g. Conviction obtained by a violation of the protection against double jeopardy.
- h. Conviction obtained by action of a grand or petit jury that was unconstitutionally selected and impaneled.
- i. Denial of effective assistance of counsel at trial or on appeal.
- j. Denial of right of appeal.
